

CHELMSFORD CIVIC SOCIETY

Newsletter September 2014

New Motto...

Chelmsford Civic Society has a new motto:

“Mindful of Chelmsford’s Heritage and Shaping its Future”

We hope this reflects the ethos of the society, showing it to be a forward looking community group while reflecting our passion for Chelmsford’s heritage.

Chelmsford Remembers

Members will have seen the ‘Dead Man’s Penny’ display that has launched our Heritage Lottery Fund project Chelmsford Remembers: commemorating the centenary of the First World War.

We hope to see you at the project launch at Hylands House on Sunday 14th September between 10.00 and 16.00. You can find out then how to contribute to the story of Chelmsford during the Great War. We will have representatives from: the Society’s committee, Chelmsford Young Explorers, the Civic War Memorial Website, Marconi Heritage Group, and High Chelmer Shopping Centre.

This will form part of Essex Record Office’s Essex at War weekend: with events, displays and discussions in the house and park.

Any members seeking more information can contact Malcolm noble at mnoble3211@yahoo.com

Events Listings

An Evening in Hylands House - Tuesday 30th September (7.30pm)

A unique guided tour around the superb Hylands House, a stunning Grade II listed property, spectacularly restored to its former glory and situated in 574 acres of historic landscaped parkland. This special tour will take you around the interior spaces, but we'd recommend enjoying the grounds while you're there too.

Tickets £5 - Email info@chelmsfordcivicsociety.co.uk to book a place.

Meeting Chelmsford Magistrates - Tuesday 28th & Friday 31st October (10.00am)

Part of Chelmsford Ideas Festival 2014 (22nd Oct-2nd Nov).

Most of us have little idea of what magistrates do, and when we find out it's usually because something has gone wrong. We'd be better off if we were well informed regardless of whether or not we even set foot in a courtroom. Dawn Roche will give a presentation in the Shire Hall court room on what magistrates do, how they reach their decisions and court process. A mock trial will take place in the Court Room.
